The Order of Service for CHORAL EVENSONG

Please stand for Choir and Clergy processions, and remain standing as the choir sing the introit.

INTROIT Adest dies leticie:

Text: Hymn at Lauds, Feast of St Ninian, Aberdeen Breviary (1510)
Transcribed, edited and translated by Alan Macquarrie, from Legends of Scottish Saints, (Four Courts Press, 2012).

Music: 'Jesu redemptor omnium', Thirteenth-century Sprouston Breviary, Edinburgh, NLS, Adv.
MS 18.2.13B, fol. 336v2. Edited by Greta-Mary Hair and Betty Knott Sharpe.

Adest dies leticie Niniani poificis, quo stolam sumpsit gloriae, choris szeptus angelicis.

Plaude, turba fidelium, patris colens solempnia;
eius laudans preconium
qui suis dat presidia.

In paradiso ecclesie,
uirtutum ex dulcedine,
spiramen dat aromatum Ninianus celestium.

Hic Ninianus sumitur,
calcato luctu seculi;
celu uictor ingreditur,
cum turmis multi populi.

Iesu, rector luctancium,
tua nos rege gracia,
supplantando demonium, mundum, carnem iusticia.

[Presta], Christe, uictoriam, nobis, deuictis
hostibus;
Niniani memoriam uitam confer agentibus.
Amen.

The joyful day of Bishop Ninian is here, when he put on a robe of glory, lifted up by the angelic hosts.

Rejoice, crowds of the faithful, celebrating your father's solemnity; praising his celebration, who gives protection to his own.

In the paradise of the church, from the sweetness of virtues,
Ninian gives the breath of heavenly aromas.

This Ninian is taken up, having trodden underfoot the world's misery, the victor enters heaven with throngs of a great nation.

Jesus, guide those who struggle, govern us by Thy grace, overthrowing the world, the flesh and the devil by righteousness.

O Christ, [grant] victory to us, when our enemies have been defeated;
give life to those who perform the commemoration of (St) Ninian. Amen.

Please sit.

WELCOME

INVITATION AND CONFESSION

Dearly beloved, I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me:

Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name.

THE ABSOLUTION

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant unto you pardon and remission of all your sins, time for true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Amen

THE PRECES Don Gillthorpe (b. 1984)

Priest: O Lord open thou our lips.

Choir: And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest: O God, make speed to save us.

Choir: O Lord, make haste to help us.

Priest: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost;

Choir: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: World without end. Amen.

Priest: Praise ye the Lord.

Choir: The Lord's name be praised

PSALM Psalm 42, Quemadmodum

LIKE as the hart desireth the water-brooks : so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God : when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

3. My tears have been my meat day and night : while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?

4. Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself : for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God;

5. In the voice of praise and thanksgiving : among such as keep holy-day.

6. Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul : and why art thou so disquieted within me?

7. Put thy trust in God : for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

8. My God, my soul is vexed within me : therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9. One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water-pipes : all thy waves and storms are gone over me.

10. The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the day-time : and in the night-season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11. I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten me : why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

12. My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword : while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth;

13. Namely, while they say daily unto me : Where is now thy God?

14. Why art thou so vexed, O my soul : and why art thou so disquieted within me?

15. O put thy trust in God : for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

FIRST LESSON Isaiah 52.7-12

MAGNIFICAT Evening Service in D minor
Music: Thomas Attwood Walmisley (1814-1856)
Text: Luke 1.46-55

My soul doth magnify the Lord : and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded : the lowliness of his handmaiden.

For behold, from henceforth : all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me : and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him : throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm : he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat : and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things : and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel : as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost :

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

SECOND LESSON John 15.12-17

NUNC DIMITTIS Evening Service in D minor
Music: Thomas Attwood Walmisley (1814-1856)
Text: Luke 1.46-55

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace : according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen : thy salvation,

Which thou hast prepared : before the face of all people;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles : and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost :
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Please stand as we affirm our faith.

COLLECT FOR THE FEAST OF ST NINIAN

O God, who by the preaching of thy blessed servant Saint Ninian. didst cause the light of the Gospel to shine in these our lands: Grant, we beseech thee that, having his life and labours in remembrance, we may shew forth our thankfulness unto thee for the same by following the example of his zeal and patience; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

COLLECT FOR PEACE

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

COLLECT FOR AID

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

ANTHEM Iste Confessor

Music: Domenico Scarlatti (1685-1757)

Text (1): Latin; Translation: anon

1 Iste confessor Domini sacratus
Festa plebs cuius celebrat per orbem,
Hodie letus meruit secreta, Scandere Cœli.

1 This the Confessor of the Lord, whose triumph now all the faithful celebrate, with gladness; Erst on this feast-day merited to enter into his glory.

2 Qui pius, prudens, humilis, pudicus,
Sobrius, castus fuit et quietus
Vita, dum presens vegetavit ejus
Corporis artus.

2 Saintly and prudent, modest in behaviour.
Peaceful and sober, chaste was he, and lowly.
While that life's vigour, coursing through his members, Quickened his being.

3 Ad sacrum cuius tumulum frequenter,
Membra languentem modo sanitati,
Quo libet morbo fuerint gravata, Restituuntur.

3 Sick ones of old time, to his tomb resorting.
Sorely by ailments manifold afflicted,
Oft-times have welcomed health and strength returning. At his petition.

4 Unde nunc noster chorus in honorem
Ipsius hymnum canit nunc libenter,
Ut piis ejus meritis juvemur
Omne per aevum.

4 Whence we in chorus gladly do him honour,
Chanting his praises with devout affection,
That in his merits we may have a portion.
Now and forever.

5 Sit salus illi decus atque virtus,
Qui supra cœli residens cacumen,
Totius mundi machinam gubernat,
Trinus et unus.

5 His be the glory, power and salvation,
Who over all things reigneth in the highest,
Earth's mighty fabric ruling and directing,
Onely and Trinal.
